AVA's Recommendation:

Finding a 30-meter (approximately 98-foot) motor yacht with just one cabin and a day head within a budget of €500,000 is highly challenging. Most yachts in this size range—such as the Sunseeker 30M, Princess 30M, or 2019 Azimut 30M—are designed as luxury vessels with multiple cabins and typically sell for several million euros, even on the used market^{[4][5][3]}. None of the yachts in the 30m segment are configured with only a single cabin; they are built for multi-guest accommodation, usually hosting 8 to 12 guests in 4 to 6 cabins. Furthermore, there are currently no listings for 30m yachts at or near the €500,000 price point; even older or out-of-production models are marketed at prices far above this budget^[5]. You may want to consider either increasing your budget substantially or exploring smaller day boats under 24 meters, as those are more likely to offer single-cabin layouts and pricing closer to your target.
